

I am very disturbed that the FCC is considering removing the ban on the same company owning both a TV station and a newspaper in the same area. Is media not concentrated enough? This can only lead to local medias buying each-other out, and reducing the number of news sources available to local citizens. Please do not remove the ban, preserve a diverse free press in America.

Sincerely,
John Rushton